Verse #1:

As a pilgrim in this lonely land,
Facing life from day to day,
Lord, lead me by thy mighty hand,
Guide me and show me the way.

Chorus:

As I go from day to day,
Lord, for this I humbly pray,
Thy tender mercies and thy grace,
As I strive to run this race.

Verse #2:

Without my hand now holding thine,
I know I'd surely fail,
Living my life with no thought in mind,
Just a ship without a sail.

Chorus:

As I go from day to day,
Lord, for this I humbly pray,
Thy tender mercies and thy grace,
As I strive to run this race.

Verse #3:

I give thanks to thee for each new day,
Blessings that you freely give,
Always right beside me all the way,
You're the reason that I live.

Chorus:

As I go from day to day,
Lord, for this I humbly pray,
Thy tender mercies and thy grace,
As I strive to run this race.

Verse #4:

For my daily bread and so much more,
I hardly know where to start,
Your matchless love that I adore,
I praise thee with all my heart.

Chorus:

As I go from day to day,
Lord, for this I humbly pray,
Thy tender mercies and thy grace,
As I strive to run this race.

Ending:

Thy, tender mercies, and thy grace,
As I strive, to run, this race.
